In spite of the great demands that the War is making, the necessary claims of the old established Societies should not be overlooked. The need for support is now greater than ever, and an urgent appeal is made on behalf of this charity, which is suffering greatly from falling-off of subscriptions.

THE COMMITTEE EARNESTLY APPEAL for the maintenance of those ladies who were left provided for by charges on Irish land property, who are incapacitated by age or infirmity from earning a living, and who, owing to the non-receipt of their incomes, are in absolute poverty. This old-established charity almost entirely supports these ladies, and, if funds are not forthcoming, their small PENSIONS WILL HAVE TO BE DISCONTINUED, which would inflict very great hardship on them, many of whom are aged.

The WORK DEPÔT assists Irish Ladies to earn their living, and the Committee earnestly ask friends requiring hand-made lingerie, blouses, embroidery, marking, etc., to ASSIST THE CHARITY BY GIVING ORDERS.

THE PRICE OF FISH.

THE NORTH SEA TRAWLERS since the commencement of the War have been pursuing their calling and maintaining the important national food supply we harvest from the sea, amounting in value to upwards of ten millions sterling a year, and many of the fishermen have lost their lives through striking mines. To the fishermen, also, has fallen the dangerous task of sweeping up the mines laid by our enemy to harass our commerce and food supplies, and many of our brave fellows have lost their lives in this service for the country.

The Royal National Mission to Deep Sea Fishermen looks after the spiritual and physical well-being of these hardy toilers of the deep, ashore and afloat, and the Council of the Society earnestly appeal for help to maintain its work amongst them.
